

RCP

ACCREDITATION STATUS

The RCP is accredited by The Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP). The mission of CACREP is to promote the professional competence of counseling and related practitioners through

- the development of preparation standards;
- the encouragement of excellence in program development; and
- the accreditation of professional preparation programs

The vision of CACREP is to provide leadership and to promote excellence in professional preparation through the accreditation of counseling and related educational programs. As an accrediting body, CACREP is committed to the development of standards and procedures that reflect the needs of a dynamic, diverse, and complex society. CACREP is dedicated to

1. encouraging and promoting the continuing development and improvement of preparation programs; and
2. preparing counseling and related professionals to provide services consistent with the ideal of optimal human development

CURRENT STATUS: CORE Accreditation through 2021

The RCP is currently preparing for the 2021 CACREP review for continued accreditation status.
